

GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ advises Haniel on the acquisition of BauWatch from Nordian Capital

PRESS RELEASE

24 February 2021

The company's access control, alarm and video systems are currently mainly used on construction sites; other areas of application include open storage areas and company premises, car parks and recycling areas.

The long-standing client relationship between Haniel and GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ has already existed for almost ten years, during which GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ assisted Haniel in many transactions. Most recently, GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ advised Haniel in connection with the acquisition of the MediaMarktSaturn minority shareholding by CECONOMY AG by way of a regular capital increase through contributions in kind as well as the Haniel subsidiary ROVEMA on the acquisition of the packaging specialist Hassia India, as well as, among others, on the acquisition of the ROVEMA Group itself (2017), the acquisition of Bekaert Textiles (2015) and the two-stage acquisition of Rentokil Initial by Haniel subsidiary CWS-boco (2016/2017 and 2019). In 2018/2019, GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ advised Haniel on the reduction of its shareholding in METRO AG.
